

Glucksman

Study Day for Leaving Certificate Students

The Lewis Glucksman Gallery Art History Study Day for Leaving Certificate and Transition Year Students will cover the three sections of the Leaving Certificate Art History and Appreciation of Art paper.

Objectives:

This study day will enable students to:

- Develop a greater sense of visual appreciation
- Explore, interpret and evaluate artworks
- Gain a deeper understanding of art historical development
- To explore in-depth a number of works by key Irish artists
- To study the characteristics of and key works from the Renaissance

Lectures will be delivered by Nora Hickey, Curator of Education + Collections in the Lewis Glucksman Gallery and Mairead Kelly, a UCC graduate of the history of art.

Where? River Room, Lewis Glucksman Gallery
When? 28 April 2007
What time? 11.00am – 4.00pm
Who? Transition Year and Leaving Certificate Students
How much? €75

Contact: Gallery Information Desk t: 021 4901844 e: info@glucksman.org

Places are limited. Booking is essential

Course Outline:

11 – 12pm	Section I: Art in Ireland - The Art of Looking - Irish Artists from the UCC Art Collection	Nora Hickey
12 – 1.15pm	Section III: Appreciation of Art - Glucksman building - Exhibition	Nora Hickey
1.15 – 2pm	Lunch break	A light lunch will be provided
2 – 4pm	Section II: European Art - The Renaissance -	Mairead Kelly

Student participation and discussion are encouraged. Students will receive a copy of The Art of Looking art pack (R.R.P. €15) and handouts for each session.