2019 marks the 300th anniversary of the construction of the public recreation area of the Mardyke in Cork city.
To mark this unique moment in the city's history, the Glucksman invited artist Deirdre Breen to create a large scale artwork at the site of the former bandstand in front of the UCC Ceremonial Gates on Western Road.

BandField transforms an overlooked public structure into a vibrant artwork and along with a free programme of music events, celebrates the Mardyke's long history as a civic space and venue for outdoor performances.
